Dynamic Earth Tour

Tuesday, September 30th, 10am to 12pm

Dynamic Earth is an interactive earth sciences museum that builds on the city's mining heritage. This visit will include an underground tour experience that will provide insight into the history and development of the local mining industry. This visit will also include a screening of the Jane Goodall documentary, Planting Hope, about environmental restoration. Buss service will be organized for pick-up and drop-off from the Raddison hotel to and from the science centre. The bus will depart from the Raddison hotel at 9:45am.
